A well connected international business district

Crawley is in the heart of the "Gatwick Diamond" which stretches from outer London to Brighton and is an internationally recognised, high performance regional business district.

It is home to 45,000 businesses and over 500 international businesses, and is one of the strongest regional economies in the UK.

The town benefits from excellent connectivity, being well situated to the south of Gatwick Airport with easy road and rail links to London, the Southern Home Counties and beyond, with railway stations at Crawley, Three Bridges and Gatwick.

The A23 is approximately 0.5 miles to the north and Junctions 10 and 11 of the M23 motorway are both easily accessible within approximately 3 miles of the building, which in turn provides access to the M25 and national motorway network.

In addition to the frequent local Fastway Bus services including to Gatwick Airport and Three Bridges, there are also routes to further afield with destinations including Epsom, Tunbridge Wells and Brighton.
